The purpose of this two-day course is to improve the female officer shooting performance through classroom exercises and partner skill-building drills in addition to intensive range work. At the end of this class, the female pistol operator will have a much higher level of understanding of the weapon system and an increased ability to deliver it efficiently and effectively. Shooting specific-strength exercises, equipment review, and available ergonomic aides trigger management focus session, individual shooting assessments, performance tracking and self diagnostic tools are just some of the tools we use.

Attendees are required to bring 300 rounds total of standard pistol ammunition. Every round is considered a sniper shot. Body armor, brimmed hat, wrap-around eye protection, ear protection and full duty gear. ***A water source and simple carbohydrate is highly recommended. Ammunition can be purchased from LouKa at a fair market value price.

About LouKa Tactical: In business since 1999 it is the largest female owned and operated company of its kind. Co-owner Lou Ann Hamblin retired from law enforcement having served for 22 years. She specializes in training female officers and is a certified firearms and defensive tactics instructor in a variety of disciplines. To date she has trained just over 3900 women in pistol classes nationally and internationally. She is a Team One Network adjunct instructor and Master Pistol Instructor. She instructs locally and nationally in the areas of instructor development, training for specialty units and female officer survival to include presentations at the following conferences: Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE), The International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association (ILEETA), The International Police Mountain Bike Association (IPMBA), and The International Association of Law Enforcement Firearms Instructors (IALEFI). Lou Ann also serves on the Board of Directors for IALEFI and was named ILEETA's "Iron Cop" for 2009 conference. She currently serves on advisory boards for PoliceOne.com, and is a former presenter with Calibre Press Women's Street Survival Seminars, of which she co-wrote.
